Cold Storage Men Are Aroused to Action By Harmon.

SAY TARIFF DID IT

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 12. — Cold costs was assessed. storage men throughout Ohio are greatly agitated over the energetic manner in which the Ohio legislature United States Infantry, who is on the preparing to investigate the high duty as an instructor for the calisted cost of food producte.

Three of them called upon Sena-tor Beatty, father of the movement, An inspection of the company will be and poured their tales of woe into made at an early date, his unsympathetic ears. One, the manager of a large restaurant in this city told Mr. Beatty that he was on the wrong scent when he blamed the cold storage men for present high prices; that the tariff is the real of-fender. He stated that his firm has 7000 dozen eggs bought when prices were at the bottom in cold storage and that if they did not have them on hand they would now be compelled to raise date, the appraising not being start-

It is believed that by the latter part in the county. of next week the legislative probe will be under full headway. The commit-tee will contain two Democrats and two Republicans, named by Lieut. Governor Treadway and Speaker Mooney. Provision for their appointment will now located, be made today tilrough a resolution Homer Bostwick and family have prepared by Attorney General Den-moved into the F. J. Poto residence man and introduced by Senator Beat- on South Arch avenue.

The committee will visit Cleveland. Toledo, Dayton, Cincinnati and Springfield in its endeavor to learn the true Columbian theatre, is quite ill at his inwardness of the conditions now confronting the people of the state.

While in Cleveland they will inves tigate the system of wireless telegra-phy or mental telepathy by which all the milk dealers recognize the exact the groom. psychological moment to raise the price of the fluid to 8 cents a quart in the fall and lower it in the spring.
Also the process by which ice dealers

ceive attention.

Bread trusts are said to exist in Springfield and Dayton and these will come in for a close investigation.
In Cincinnati the fight between the farmers who produce the milk—the Tristate Farmer and Dairymen's association—and the Hamilton county Milk Dealer's association will be the chief subject of inquiry. In all parts of the state the workings of cold storage houses will be gone into.

Even with the small amount of testimony at hand, the legislators feel sure that the chief weapon of the commissoin dealers and cold storage companies is the city bucksters' and pedlers' license and perhaps the chief recommendation of the committee will be for state regulation of the license system in critics the oughout the state. Governor Harmon today sent to the heads of all state institutions a letter urging them, in view of the high cost of living to economize as much as possible. He says the people are forced right that the state does likewise.

Horse Saves Lives. When its driver had become para yzed with fear, a horse today saved the lives of J. S. Crow, his wife and Miss Mary Schwartzelow of Navarre. The three were out sleigh riding. In crossing the B. & O. tracks the runners caught on the rails and stopped the sleigh in the middle of the track. Just then a fast passenger train rounded the curve. Crow dropped the lines, and the trio became stiff with fear. The horse saw what was coming and failing to pull the sleigh ward turned it around and then dragged it off the track just as the engine
